Numb. 369.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From December 24. to December 30. 1735.

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 14.

NOtwithſtanding the late Renewal of the Alliance betwixt this Crown and France, there is another very ſtrict one upon the Carpet, between his Swediſh Majeſty and the King of England, which will not be made publick till after the Conſummation of the Marriage between Prince Frederick, eldeſt Son of William Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, and the ſecond Princeſs Royal of England, which is very much talk'd of.

The Count de Caſteja, Ambaſſador of France ſtill gives out, That the Affairs of King Staniſlaus are ſtill on a good Footing in Poland; and he produces a Liſt of above 200 Poliſh Noblemen, who have engaged upon Oath to exert their utmoſt Efforts not only to aboliſh the intended Diet of the Kingdom, but alſo to ſacrifice their All for their lawful King.

Berlin, Sept. 20. The King having the Enlargement of this City much at Heart, his Majeſty went Yeſterday Morning to the Out Parts of Fredericſtad, to which the New Wall is to be continued, and ſet a Detachment of 300 Men to work upon a Ditch half a Mile in Length, to prolong the ſaid Wall. At Noon his Majeſty din'd there under a Tent, and entertain'd 40 Perſons at his Table. And he is ſo perfectly eaſy in his Feet, that he was Yeſterday on Foot at the Parade.

Hamburg, Sept. 23. Private Letters from Hanover ſay, That on the 8th Inſtant the Marquis de Chavigny, the Miniſter of France, had by Orders from his Court, declared to my Lord Harrington, that tho' his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had expreſſed his ſincere Intentions for a general Pacification, he was ſenſible that ſome Courts had conceived Surmiſes of him, that were directly contrary to his Inclinations, and that therefore he was obliged to declare, in purſuance of the ſaid Intentions of the King his Maſter, that it will now depend entirely on the Mediatorial Powers to chuſe a neutral and convenient Place to hold a Congreſs, to which his Ambaſſadors were actually ready to repair. Mean time the Count de Montijo the Miniſter of Spain ſtill perſiſts that the Engliſh Fleet may be recall'd from the Coaſts of of Portugal, intimating that otherwiſe the King of Spain will not enter into any particular Treaty.

Theſe Letters add, than when the Poſt came away, a Gentleman arriv'd there, who was diſpatch'd from the Prince of Wales with Preſents to the Court of Gotha; and that 'tis affirm'd at Hanover, that when Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel was laſt at Herenhauſen, the Marriage Treaty betwixt Prince Frederick his eldeſt Son, and the ſecond Princeſs of England, was ſign'd by his Britannick Majeſty, and that Prince Frederick was expected at Hanover to ſet out with the King for London.

They write from Petersburg, That the Czarina has reſolv'd to go to Cronſtad by Water with all her Family, and a great Retinue, when the Squadron returns from the Baltick, in order to divert herſelf upon the River Neva; and that ſeveral of the moſt conſiderable Merchants were ſet out for Moſcow, to ſettle the Commerce with the Provinces newly diſcover'd in Tartary, which is like to be very advantageous, and for which the Czarina has paſſed the Grant that was deſired for that End. Some Ships from Greenland are alſo come Home with very rich Cargoes.

London, Sept. 20. Laſt Saturday, as two Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, guarded by four Men well armed, were bringing to the Cuſtom-Houſe ſome Tea and other run Goods, which they had ſeized in Eſſex, ten Smugglers, all masked, and well mounted and armed, came up with them near Chelmsford, and ordered them to ſtop and deliver them up the Goods; which the Officers and their Guard thought proper to comply with, without offering to make the leaſt Reſiſtance; and in Return for their good Nature, the Smugglers did not offer to beat or otherwiſe miſuſe any of them, only ly tyed them to the Trees to prevent their taking Notice which way they went off with their Booty, and disarmed the Guard, telling them in a very civil Manner, they had no Occasion to burden themselves with such Weapons, since they did not know how to use them.

We have an Account from Paris, that an English Gentleman laid a Wager, with a French Nobleman, that before the 17th Instant, N. S. Prince Eugene would pass the Rhine and give Battle to the French. Our Countryman, it seems, was so positive, that he laid 500 Guineas to 300; and has been since obliged to pay the Money; from whence it is hoped our Countrymen will learn to be a little more cautious for the future; for it seems the French know the Designs of the Imperial Court better than we do.

Sept. 27. His Majesty is removed from Herenhausen to the Castle at Hanover, to reside there till his Return to England. 'Tis said that he purposes to leave Hanover the first Week in next Month, and in his Way through Holland, to spend a few Days with the Prince and Princess of Orange at Loo.

The Capitulation obtained by the Imperial Garrison in Mirandola, contain'd more honourable Terms than was believed possible for them to obtain; as that the Officers should preserve their Arms and Equipages, and go where they pleas'd upon their Parole; that the Soldiers should have none of their Cloaths or Effects taken from them; that the Sick and Wounded should have all possible Care taken of them; and that the Town should retain its Privileges and Form of Government.

The Advices from the Rhine are, that Count Seckendorff, who is lately promoted to be Veldt-Marshal of the Empire, was to march the 26th Instant, N. S. with a large Body of the Imperial Troops, in order to gain a Footing upon the Moselle; and that the French Army having remov'd one Stage nearer their Lines in the Spirebach, had detach'd a considerable Number of Men, under the Count de Bellisle, to oppose Count Seckendorff's Motions.

On Saturday last one Margaret Hampton, Mother (as is said) of a young Woman who was found dead last Week in Denmark-Court, and Rebecca and Margaret Hampton her Sisters, were re-examin'd before Col. de Veil, and upon the Information given by one Elizabeth Caway, were committed to Newgate. By several Circumstances that appear'd, there were strong Grounds to believe the Deceased was first poison'd, and then strangled, and her Body was opened on Monday in the Presence of the Coroner's Inquest, who attended at Col. de Veil's to hear the Examination. It was proved that a great Quantity of Blood seem'd to have been fresh mopp'd up in the Room where the poor Creature lay, and that some of her Wearing Apparel had been carried to the Pawn-Broker's by the Persons now in Newgate.

The Week before last, an Affair happened at Dublin, which may occasion a fresh Dispute with Spain. A Ship happened to come into that Port from Spain, commanded by Spaniards, and belonging, as they thought, to some Merchants in Spain, and being brought up to the Customhouse Key to be cleared, a Scotch Master of a Vessel who happened to be on the Key at the Time, immediately knew her to be the Ship that had been taken from him by the Spaniards, during the last Siege of Gibraltar: The Scotchman did not, it seems, put great Trust in the Reparation we are to obtain by our Commissaries from Spain, for the many Depredations they have committed upon us, and therefore he immediately seized upon his own Ship, and having fairly proved her to be his, as there was no War then declared between the two Nations, there was no denying or evading his Claim; so that the Ship was immediately unloaded and delivered to him, and on Monday was Se'night he sailed with her for his own Country.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Sept. 30. N. S.

The Resolution which the Emperor has taken to place a Body of Men in Winter Quarters in the Netherlands, gives no little Uneasiness here, since it is conceived, that these Troops being so near to the Frontiers of France, will pay as small a Regard to the Neutrality of the Country, as Marshal Coigny's Army has done to that of the Elector Palatine, whose Territories to the left of the Rhine are intirely stript, notwithstanding the Neutrality which his Highness settled with that General, and kept on his part with the greatest Nicety imaginable. Their High Mightinesses Deputies have been lately to talk over this Affair with the Imperial Minister here; but his Excellency answered, that as the Emperor had the Misfortune not to be succour'd by his antient and natural Friends, he was obliged to make the best of his bad Situation, and to endeavour to draw the Enemy farther from the Frontiers of the Empire, and to remove the Seat of War into the Heart of France if he should be able. The Deputies reply'd by representing the ill Consequences of this Design; but his Excellency rejoin'd, that seeing his Imperial Majesty was as it were abandon'd by his Friends, he ought to be left to himself to deal with his Enemies, and was compell'd to risk any Sacrifice rather than conclude a dishonourable Peace.

Yesterday was Se'night the Grand Jury for the City of London made a Presentment to the Court at the Old Baily of the many Gin-Shops licenced within the City of London, as being a great Nusance, to the said City, as well by harbouring Rogues, Vagrants, Street-Robbers, &c. as by endangering the Fortunes of the Inhabitants by Fire, which too often happens at such Places, through the Drunkenness and Carelessness of those who frequent them: This Presentment the Court highly approved of, and were pleased to express their Satisfaction with the Concern for the Publick Good, which the Grand Jury testifyed by making the same; and assured them that the Right

Right Hon. the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen have had the Affair under Conſideration for ſome Time, and would do all that in them lay to diſcourage and entirely deſtroy ſo intolerable a Grievance.

On Thurſday was Se'night the Sum of 1741. 18 s. and 6 d. was paid into the Bank of England, being the Sum collected for the Colony of Georgia in America, in the Pariſh of St. John at Hackney, by Virtue of a Commiſſion granted by the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing that Colony, to the Reverend the Miniſter and Church Wardens of the ſaid Pariſh, who collected the ſame from Houſe to Houſe, attended by ſeveral of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, living within the Pariſh.

It is reported here, that there is a private Treaty actually on Foot between the Emperor and Great Britain; and another for taking into the Pay of the latter, in caſe of Need, 8000 Heſſians, and 8000 Swedes. The Court of Verſailles have taken a Diſguſt at the Negotiations carrying on by the King of Sweden with his Britannick Majeſty and the Czarina, and ſtill delay to exchange the Ratification of their late Treaty of Subſidy.

Private Letters from Abroad tell us, that the Court of Vienna is in great Diſtreſs for Want of Money, or Expedients to raiſe it; and that in a Grand Council lately held, Count Konigſegg offered to ſell his Plate and Jewels, and hoped that the other Miniſters and Lords would follow his Example, to maintain the Glory of the Empire.

The laſt Letters from the Rhine were dated from Prince Eugene's Quarters, and mention'd great Part of the Imperial Troops in Motion, and ſeem'd to put beyond Doubt, Count Seckendorff's Intention to attempt to penetrate to the Moſelle. Our preſent Advices are from the French Camp, who ſeem in a State of Tranquility, and do little but forage. The Count de Belliſle, with an Army of Obſervation, keeps his Eye on the Germans, and a few Days ago perceiving they were throwing up a Fortification near Binden, ſent a Detachment to demoliſh the Works, which they did accordingly, driving a Party of Heſſians, who were poſted over the Workmen, into the very Town for Protection.

Friday ſe'nnight Sir Charles Wager, Knt. and firſt Lord Commiſſioner of the Admiralty, preſented a Plan of Fortifications to her Majeſty, deſign'd to be made in the Colony of Georgia; which being approv'd by her Majeſty, the ſame will be put in Execution there, under the Direction of James Oglethorpe, Eſq; who will be declar'd Governor of the ſaid Colony at his Majeſty's Return from Hanover.

BOSTON, December 15.

Laſt Tueſday arrived here Capt. Carr in a Brigt. from the Old River in the Bay of Honduras, in 28 Days, by whom we have Advice; That the latter end of October laſt, Two Spaniſh Petiaugers took Capt. Pennſylvania, ſſ. THE Proprietaries, from the ſeveral Notices given to the Inhabitants of this Province, for the Payment of their Arrears of Quitrent, fully expected they ſhould not have been laid under a Neceſſity of urging the Tenants by any further Publication, to do what is ſo indiſpenſably their Duty, and that by which they hold their Eſtates.
